

QUALITY POLICY

We accord utmost importance to quality and we take pride in our services. We maintain a rigorous quality control program that includes continuous communication, education and training.

- Our Quality review process begins at the initial stage and continues until the work is completed.
- We follow Quality Assurance Program by systematically listening to our customer's concerns, analyzing problems and identifying causes and effectively developing responses.
- Provide high quality services and installations to its customers which meets the requirement and fit for their purpose.
- Our Total Quality Management plan will ensure that your projects are completed As Specified and On-Time.
- Meet the requirements of ISO9001-2015 Quality Management System (QMS).
- Prepare their staff to perform their work more effectively by providing required training.
- Monitoring and controlling the progress of its projects at every stages such as estimation, planning, design, purchase, installation, testing commissioning and handing over.
- Promote the quality management systems and ensuring implementation is achieved by internal auditing, Management, review, corrective and preventive action.
- We commit to continually review the quality system and our goals in accordance with the ISO 9001 accreditation requirements and be committed to delivering the highest levels of quality throughout the company and its processes.
- Continued efforts in training and utilizing our own comprehensive quality control program unite our Engineers with clients' engineering department to work closely to meet your requirements and specifications, from design to completion.
- Ability to update the customer at regular intervals on the progress of their projects.